BRAIN INJURY

Contents of Volume 7, 1993

Number 1, January–February 1993

Editorial 1

Original Papers:

Somatosensory evoked potential peak latencies and amplitudes in contralateral and ipsilateral hemispheres in normal and severely traumatized brain-injured subjects
Maurice Rappaport, Jill Leonard and Sarbelio Ruiz Portillo 3

Outcome evaluation and prediction in a comprehensive-integrated post-acute outpatient brain injury rehabilitation programme
James F. Malec, Jeffrey S. Smigielski, Robert W. DePompolo and Jeffrey M. Thompson 15

Critical factors associated with the successful supported employment placement of patients with severe traumatic brain injury
Paul Wehman, John Kregel, Pam Sherron, Stefanie Nguyen, Jeffrey Kreutzer, Robyn Fry and Nathan Zasler 31

The adversarial alliance; developing therapeutic relationships between families and the team in brain injury rehabilitation
A. M. McLaughlin and J. L. Carey 45

Use of the Recognition Memory Test in traumatic brain injury: preliminary findings
Scott R. Millis and Marcel Dijkers 53

Hypernasality in dysarthric speakers following severe closed head injury: a perceptual and instrumental analysis
D. Theodoros, B. E. Murdoch, P. D. Stokes and H. J. Chenery 59

Evaluation of an innovative cost-effective programme for brain injury patients: response to a need for flexible treatment planning
Ann Marie McLaughlin and S. Peters 71

Case studies:

Chlorpromazine-induced psychosis after brain injury
M. Elizabeth Sandel, Don A. Olive and Mark A. Rader 77

Methods of increasing client acceptance of a memory book
George Fluharty and David Priddy 85

Computer technology
Computer hardware and operating systems
Robert L. Conder 89

Developmental models of social cognition in assessing psychosocial adjustments in head injury
Maureen J. Levine, K. Roger van Horn and Albert B. Curtis 153

Food intake by brain-injured humans who are in the chronic phase of recovery
Martha B. Henson, John M. De Castro, Anthony Y. Stringer and Cindy Johnson 169

Case study:
Fifteen-cycle cranial electrotherapy stimulation for spasticity
Allen Childs 179

Programme idea
Vocational Communication Group treatments in an outpatient head injury facility
Hannah Bick Carlson and Mary Beth Wind Buckwald 183

Letter to the Editors
Fluoxetine in treating emotional lability
A. Hornstein, G. Seliger, J. Flax, J. Herbert and K. Schroeder 189

Number 3, May–June 1993

Original Papers:
Density spectral array, evoked potentials, and temperature rhythms in the evaluation and prognosis of the comatose patient
Jason Alster, Hillel Pratt and Moshe Feinsod 191

AIDS knowledge and risk behaviours among traumatic brain injury survivors with coexisting substance abuse
Thomas H. Kramer, Dorothy Faith Nelson and Ping Wu Li 209

The scaling of the Katz Adjustment Scale in a traumatic brain injury rehabilitation sample
David A. Goran and Robert J. Fabiano 219

The effects of parental traumatic brain injury on the behaviour of parents and children
Linda F. Pessar, Mary Lou Coad, Richard T. Linn and Barry S. Willer 231

The interplay between emotional and cognitive recovery after closed head injury
Elaine MacNiven and M. Alan J. Finlayson 241

Centripetal and centrifugal family life cycle factors in long-term outcome following traumatic brain injury
Allan Moore, Michael Stambrook and Lois Peters 247

Case study:
Clinical management of a man with complex partial seizures and a severe head injury
Simon B. N. Thompson, Nigel North and Brian Pentland 257

Subject review:
Post-traumatic seizures: a critical review
Christina Dalmady-Israel and Nathan D. Zasler 263

Programme methodology:
Awareness and goal setting with the traumatically brain injured
Thomas F. Bergquist and Mary P. Jacket 275

Number 4, July–August 1993

Original Papers:
Statistical profile of traumatic brain injury: a Canadian rehabilitation population
Pauline P. Wong, James Dornan, Catherine T. Schentag, Rosa Ip and Ann Marie Keating 283

Abnormal patterns of speech breathing in dysarthric speakers following severe closed head injury
Bruce E. Murdoch, Deborah G. Theodoros, Peter D. Stokes and Helen J. Chenery 295

Glasgow Outcome Scale: an inter-rater reliability study
Shirley I. Anderson, Alma M. Housley, Patricia A. Jones, James Slattery and J. Douglas Miller 309

A survey of accredited and other rehabilitation facilities: education, training and cognitive rehabilitation in brain-injury programmes
Paul E. Mazmanian, Jeffrey S. Kreutzer, Catherine W. Devany and Kathleen O. Martin 319
